

GROW STRONG November is a charity promoting the cultivation of mustaches in November. Oh, and it donates money to prostate cancer research and the LiveStrong Foundation. us.movember.com

Lip Service

IN HONOR OF MUSTACHE MONTH, WE'RE CELEBRATING THE GREATEST MOMENTS IN LIP TICKLERS. IN YOUR FACE, BEARDS!

▲ 1972 The Oakland A's are dubbed "the Mustache Gang" after the team's owner, Charlie Finley, gave his players a $300 bonus to grow mo's. When they faced the clean-shaven Cincinnati Reds in the World Series that year, it was called the "Hairs Versus Squares" Series. The A's won (and not just in hirsuteness).

▲ 1914 Charlie Chaplin's famous mustache makes its debut in Kid Auto Races at Venice, but hold on: It was fake! He wouldn't grow a real one for 33 years, when he wore a pencil-thin 'stache for his role in Monsieur Verdoux.

▲ 2010 Michael Jordan raises a furor when he sports what appears to be a Hitler mustache in a Hanes ad. Nazis can't get enough of those Comfort Flex Fit® boxer briefs!

▲ 1942 Artist Frida Kahlo embraces her lady 'stache (and uni-brow) in a self-portrait entitled Self-Portrait With Monkey and Parrot. Those are not nicknames for her hair.

▲ 1830 Inventor Harvey Adams creates the "mustache cup," a coffee mug with a built-in ledge that keeps your beverage from ruining your finely coiffed lip hair.

▲ 1881 Chester Arthur becomes the first mustachioed U.S. president. Cleveland, Roosevelt, and Taft follow in his whiskered path. Mustachioed presidents since 1913? Zero.

U-S-A! U-S-A! U-S-A!
According to a recent, massive study, 38 percent of Europeans suffer from a mental illness. Suck on that, socialized medicine! Now, where's our Ritalin?

Lobster Trap
D'Iberville, Mississippi police arrested Nathan Hardy in September. His crime? Shoplifting a pork loin and live lobsters...in his pants.

Alligator Attack
Filipino villagers recently caught one of the world's largest recorded alligators. More than 21 feet long, it had terrorized the town for 20 years.

HOW TO HAVE AWESOME FACIAL HAIR

Jahmal Rhoney, owner of 2B Groomed barbershop in Philly, on getting the full potential out of your man fur.

WASH IN
If you have coarse hair, try some beard or facial wash. It should be massaged in, serving as a way to stimulate growth.

BRUSH UP
Use a brush to stroke your beard hair periodically. This will create more fullness and allow follicles to expand.

WAX OFF
Use beard wax, but only enough to give you control over the hair's direction, not so much that you shine like Bruce Willis' dom3.
